Colors and scents of the mediterranean macchia welcome the beauty of this property, located on one of the highest and most fascinating spots of Panarea.

Built in 1982 to serve as a private residence for an Italian family who has always been in love with the island, Villa Bouganvillea is a 360 sqm, three-storey house facing the southern Tyrrhenian Sea.

The facade is an pure example of the Aeolian architecture. Each and every room of the villa enjoy of the beautiful view on the sea and the Aeolian Islands, which gifts the villa with an unmistakable elegance and uniqueness.

Stromboli, Basiluzzo, Dattilo and Lisca Bianca

Panarea is the oldest island of the Aeolian archipelago, chosen for its beauty by directors Rossellini and Antonioni. Today, it is the epicenter of one of the most elegant summer destinations in the country.

Bouganvillea is situated in the Drautto area, where the ancient and most genuine personality of the island is still intact. From here, you can admire Cala del Moro and Cala degli Zimmari, the only sandy beach on the island.

On the horizon, you can spot the profiles of the islands of Lipari, Vulcano and Salina, 12 miles away. The harbour of Panarea is the most touristic area, full of bars and restaurants. On this side of the island, you can enjoy breathtaking views of Stromboli, Basiluzzo, Dattilo and Lisca Bianca.

From the living area, through the indoor or outdoor staircase, you can reach either one of the sleeping areas, located on the lower and upper floor of the villa.

Two master bedrooms are located on the upper floor, with a bathroom and direct access to the terrace, where you can enjoy a unique view on the two bays of Drautto and on the islands of Lipari, Vulcano e Salina.

Two more bedrooms are located on the lower floor. Here is located a further bathroom and a room that can either become a bedroom or a kitchen.

There is also the technical-administrative possibility of building three more bathrooms, one per floor, which would add a private bathroom for each bedroom and a guest bathroom.
